Release of Liability for Equine Activities

Owner/Rider/Volunteer

Witness this agreement _____ day of _____, 20____, by and between Koinonia Camp & Conference Center, hereinafter referred to as MANAGER and _____, hereinafter referred to as RIDER. For consideration received, and in return for the use today, and on all future dates of the property, facility and services of Manager, riders, rider's heirs, assigns and representatives of, hereby agree as follows:

1. Inherent risk and Assumption of Risk. The undersigned acknowledges there are Inherent risks associated with equine activities such as described below, and hereby expressly assumes all risks associated with participating in such activities. The inherent risks include but are not limited to, the propensity of equines to behave in ways such as, running, bucking, kicking, biting, shying, rearing, falling or stepping on, that may result in injury, harm or death to persons on or around them; the unpredictability of the equines reactions to things such as sounds, sudden movements and unfamiliar objects, persons or other animals; certain hazard such as surface and subsurface conditions; collisions with other animals; the limited availability of emergency medical assistance; and the potential of a participant to act in a negligent way that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the animal, or not acting within the participant's ability.

Rider acknowledges that horses, by their very nature are unpredictable and subject to animal whims. Rider assumes all responsibility in connection there in, and expressly waives any claims for any injury or loss arising therefrom. Rider agrees to abide by and follow Manager's rules and regulations which shall be posted and or available from time to time. Rider further acknowledges that the behavior of any animal is contingent to some extent upon the ability of the rider. Rider assumes all risks therefore and warrants a full and fair disclosure of the riders abilities has been made to manager.

Rider expressly releases manager from any and all claims for personal injury or property damage, even if caused by negligence on the part of the manager (if allowed by the laws of this state) by manager, representatives or employees.

Warning

Under Ohio law, an equine activity sponsor, equine activity participants, equine professional, veterinarian, farrier, or other person is not liable in damages in a tort or other civil action for harm that an equine activity participant allegedly sustains during an equine activity and that results from inherent risks associated with the activity pursuant to Ohio revised code annotated 2305.321(2001)

2. Rider agrees to hold harmless, indemnify, and defend manager against, and hold harmless from, any and all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, orders, judgments, costs or expenses, including attorney's fees, whether actually incurred or not, which may in any way arise from or in any way be connected to the riders use of or presence upon the property of the manager or the facilities thereof.

3. In the event that the rider is using rider's own horse(s), or a horse(s) not owned by manager, rider warrants said horse shall be free of infection, contagions or transmittable diseases. Manager reserves the right to refuse access or use of any horse upon the premises that does not appear to manager to be in good health, or is dangerous or in any way deemed undesirable by manager.

4. Any action brought under this agreement shall be brought within (1) year of the incident of accident giving rise to said claim. Rider agrees damages shall be limited to $250 in property damage, actual expenses incurred, and a maximum of $10,000 for damages such as pain and suffering.

5. Rider agrees to waive and applicable statutes in this jurisdiction whose purpose, substance and/or effect, is to provide that a general release shall not extend to claims, material or otherwise, which the person giving the release does not know or suspect to exist at the time of executing said release.
